“He is young, exciting, vital, exudes energy on stage and immediately catches the attention of the public. His genius reminds great Russian artists such as Vladimir Horowitz” (Alexis Gregory). Denis Kozhukhin is one of the most promising pianists of his generation able to play at the top level as well as a soloist as in chamber music. Born in 1986 in Russia, he began his studies in Balakirev School with N. Fish. He then studied in the High Music School Queen

Sofia in Madrid with Maestro D. Bashkurov and C. Martinez-Menher. He had also masterclasses with L. Fleisher, Z. Kocsis, S. Kovacevich, V. Margulis, M. Pressler, Fou Ts’ong... He has received from the Queen Reina Sofia herself the Diplom of honor for the best soloist and twice as best chamber music group for his Trio Cervantes. Denis is part of the selective International Academy Lake Como. He won the 1st prize in Vendome Prize 2009 and the 3rd Prize in Leed

2006. He has played in festivals such as Progetto Martha Argerich in Lugano 2003, Santander, Louvre, Prestige Series in New York. Ruhr Klavier Festival, with orchestras such as the Halle Orchestra, Gulbenkian Orchestra. He is invited in numerous future concerts in all Europe such as Poland Chopin Festival, Lille Piano Festival, Bouffes du Nord, Jerusalem, the Hamburger Symphoniker conducted by Jeffrey Tate (Brahms 1), HNPO conducted by Zoltan Kocsis (Prokofiev 2).
